CHILE YIELDS. She Will Make All Proper Amends.

For the Attack on the Baltimore Sailors at Valparaiso.

Her Minister at Washington Ordered to Make an Apology.

Friends of Balmaceda the Real War Party in Chile—Why the American Legation is Guarded by Police.

By Telegram to The Times. New York, Jan. 5.—[By the Associated Press.]

The Herald's Valparaiso correspondent says that he hears that the Chilean government has cabled orders to Minister Pedro Montt at Washington to make a sincere apology to the United States for the unfortunate and deplorable attack upon the Baltimore sailors on October 16 last.

The apology is to be unqualified in character. Other matters which have been in dispute between Chile and the United States are speedily to be considered by the new administration.

From semi-official sources the correspondent learns that the reason why the Santiago police are kept in the vicinity of the American legation is that the intendente of the city is in daily receipt of letters containing threats to burn and sack the legation.

The correspondent asserts that it is no secret that those who cherish ideas of war between the United States and Chile are friends of Balmaceda.

A correspondent learns that the German minister, Lueschmidt, offered the services of his country as mediator on his own personal responsibility.

This is in line with his course of action ever since the present government came into office. He has pursued it with a view to getting up a reputation for himself as a diplomatist.

The Yantic has arrived at Montevideo.

FEELING AT WASHINGTON. Chile's Recent Course Regarded as a Hopeful Indication.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] The correspondence which the president promised to send to Congress relating to the attack upon the Baltimore sailors at Valparaiso will not be sent now.

In fact, there is reason to believe that some days may elapse before the public may know officially just what has passed between the Department of State and Minister Egan on the one side and the Chilean Minister of Foreign Affairs and Minister Montt on the other.

The unofficial announcement of the practical completion of the judicial proceedings in Valparaiso and intention of the Chilean legal authorities to punish three Chileans convicted of participation here and is generally regarded as a distinct concession by the Chileans to the United States.

As showing that there will not in all probability be further undue delay in the disposition of the case, these tidings have not so far as learned, been officially made known to Secretary Blaine by Minister Montt, and it may be the latter will await the sentence of the convicted Chileans before he presents to the Secretary the conclusions reached by the judicial authorities of his country.

With matters in this promising condition it is unlikely a promising element will be introduced in the negotiations by the publication of the incomplete correspondence.

BETHLEHEM (Pa.), Jan. 4.—Owing to the unsatisfactory tests at Indian Head on Thursday last, of the curved armor plate to be used for the Barbettes of the cruiser Monterey, the Bethlehem Iron Company has been instructed by the Navy Department to send work for the present on all curved armor plates for the Monterey.

A DEAL IN TYPE. A British Syndicate Having the Principal Foundries. BUFFALO (N. Y.), Jan. 4.

[By the Associated Press.] Chariton M. Lyman, of the firm of Lyman & Sons, type and electrotype foundries, tonight related a story of a big deal in which an English syndicate has invested $25,000,000 to $30,000,000.

This syndicate has bought all the type foundries in the United States. There are four in New York, four in Chicago, one in Buffalo, one in Cleveland, two each in St. Louis, Cincinnati, San Francisco, and Philadelphia and one in Baltimore.

A few of the smaller foundries may be moved to the South and West and some of them may be closed. The option expires January 31 and agents of the syndicate are vigorously at work. The company will be called the American Type Foundry Company.

China Orders Yankee Rifles. NEW HAVEN, (Conn.) Jan. 4.—The Chinese Ambassador to the United States, with two secretaries and an interpreter, arrived in this city at noon today from Washington.

The party visited the Marlene Repeating Arm-Company's factory. It is understood the minister placed a large order for rifles, but beyond acknowledging the fact the officers refuse to discuss the matter.

THE OLD DIFFERENTIALS. Canadian Pacific Will Carry Freight for Less Than American Lines.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—[By Associated Press.] The Canadian Pacific Railway put into effect today a series of differentials on San Francisco freight business.

From Chicago and Milwaukee common points the differentials are as follows: First-class, 17 1/2 cents; second, 14 1/2 cents; third, 12 cents; fourth and fifth, 10 cents; A and B, 8 cents; C, 7 cents; D and E, 5 cents.

On all rates of $1.20 or under, the differential is 8 cents per 100 pounds. Rates of Mississippi River territory points through which the traffic from Milwaukee and Chicago common points passes in reaching St. Paul will not be higher than the differential rate from Chicago.

When the commodity rate is the same as the regular class rate the same differential will apply; when not the same class rate the next below will apply.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—The Transcontinental Association has announced that the differentials which were effective upon the Canadian Pacific in 1890 have been restored to that line.

This means that the Canadian Pacific will be allowed to carry freight from Vancouver to the Atlantic seaboard at rates that run from 5 to 28 cents lower, according to the class, than the shorter-route American lines are permitted to carry it.

BALLOU BOLTS. Dr. Graves's Alleged Accomplice is Suddenly Missing.

Mrs. Barnaby's Son-in-law Says He Will Pursue Him to the End of the World—Graves Denies Confessing.

By Telegram to The Times. DENVER (Colo.), Jan. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] Col. Ballou, the lawyer from Providence, R. I., connected with the Graves-Barnaby case, is missing. He took a train for Chicago when the verdict was rendered and probably arrived there this morning.

When seen by an Associated Press reporter this afternoon Dr. Graves emphatically reiterated his denial of having made a confession. He says that Deputy Sheriff Wilson came in and woke him up at 8:30 in the morning, said he had just come from District Attorney Stevens; that Stevens advised Graves to make a confession implicating Ballou, saying it would help him out.

Graves said he refused to make any statement. Wilson still maintains that the doctor confessed, but Deputy Means refuses to talk on the subject.

It is asserted that a detective, in the employ of John Conrad, the late Mrs. Barnaby's son-in-law, is following Ballou on his Eastern trip. No warrant for Ballou's arrest has been issued, but the grand jury is now in session and it is asserted that they are examining the deputy sheriffs regarding the alleged confession.

Fresh detachments went out today. All forces are suffering much from lack of forage and water for horses.

MEXICO'S PERIL. Threatened Revolts Caused by Famine and General Disaffection.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] The news from Durango is very sad, though the government is trying to conceal the facts and give out contrary reports. It is now well known that the stories heretofore received are not exaggerated, and many people are suffering from starvation.

It is said that if the government continues to be deaf to the cry of the sufferers a rising of the people may be expected. To use the words of a man of influence among the common people: "I prefer to die fighting than from hunger."

In the State of Chihuahua there is political trouble. The new Governor, Alabara, is trying to set the people against the late Governor, Carrascona, but the latter, who knows the people well, has created decided hostility against Alabara, and the state is said to be ripe for revolution, not against Diaz, but his appointee, Alabara.

In Puebla revolution was only avoided by the general government backing down after arresting the priests in two monasteries in Puebla, which is the most Catholic and religious state in the republic.

It is stated that it was the intention of the government to arrest all priests, and if the people rose to shoot them down, but Bishop Moraby very prudently preached by himself, and throughout his subordinates have avoided what seemed to be a trap set for him.

A prominent government official says the affair was a sad mistake. The government was not to blame, and the state authorities did not know how to carry out the orders given. This has given rise to an opinion that the whole thing was a plot to oust Gov. Marquez, who is a moderate ruler.

The Garza revolution is becoming a more important matter than the government is willing to concede. It is an open secret here that Garza is receiving money from persons in both Mexico and the United States, and contrabandists of all classes on the border line of both countries are contributing to carry on the work.

Speculators in Mexican bonds are also said to be lending a hand. There is no doubt that the government will finally triumph, but it is possible the present movement may contemplate an uprising by the hungry people in some of the suffering states. In such an event and in the hands of a competent leader the result would have much greater force and perhaps tax the power of the government.

Garza Said to be Surrounded. LAREDO (Tex.), Jan. 4.—It is stated here that the Mexican revolutionist, Garza, is surrounded in the chaparral, in the extreme northwestern corner of Zapata county, by United States troops and rangers, and that it is almost impossible for him to escape either to the northward or in the direction of Mexico.

BREAKING UP. Garza's Band Fast Going to Pieces.

Gen. Stanley Reports That the Rio Grande is Well Guarded.

The Bandit Himself Said to be Surrounded by Troops.

Mexican Advances Take a Gloomy View of the Situation—Disensions and Outbreaks in Various Parts of the Republic.

By Telegram to The Times. WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] A telegram from Gen. Stanley, dated at San Antonio, Tex., today, received by Gen. Schofield tonight, leads him to believe that the trouble is nearing an end. The telegram is as follows:

The commanding officer at Fort Ringgold today reports that a courier from Lieut. Beach at Pinoso passed Capt. Hardie at Salinas. All information from that direction and from scouting parties in the vicinity indicate the breaking up and scattering of the band of revolutionists, which had begun to form into larger forces. Reliable information received convinces me that the reports mentioned in your telegram of December 29 are incorrect. All stage lines and travel here continue unobstructed.

Capt. Johnson, at Fort Brown, telegraphs that he returned last night with his troop from a forty-five mile ride from Rio Grande City, where a large ranch was searched. No bandits were there. The situation of the troops on the Rio Grande is as follows: The cavalry is scouting in Encinal, Duval, Zapata and Starr counties. The river is well protected from Ringgold to McIntosh.

The telegram of Gen. Schofield of December 29, above referred to, calls the attention of Gen. Stanley to reports current in Mexico that several large ranch owners in Texas were harboring and aiding bands of revolutionists.

TROOPS WILL PREVENT HIM FROM RAISING A FORMIDABLE FORCE. SAN ANTONIO (Tex.), Jan. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] Official telegrams were received at military headquarters today from the commanders at Forts Kingbird and Brown to the effect that Garza's men are being watched by the United States troops and will be prevented from mobilizing anything like a formidable force on American soil.

Capt. Wheeler, at Fort Ringgold, discounts the assertion of the Mexican Minister at Washington that a prominent Mexican citizen is being held by Garza at a point in Duval county.

Capt. Johnson, at Fort Brown, has just returned from a scout of forty-five miles up the Rio Grande, but met no revolutionists. Fresh detachments went out today. All forces are suffering much from lack of forage and water for horses.

TO HEAD OFF HILL. New York Republican Leaders Again in Council.

Efforts to Prevent the Democrats Organizing the Senate—The Key to the Situation Held by an "Independent Republican."

By Telegram to The Times. NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] The corridors of the Fifth Avenue Hotel were crowded all the morning with Republican Senators and politicians.

They spent all day yesterday devising means to overcome Hill's majority in the Senate. Nothing was done at 12:30, at which time the meeting was called to order. At 1 o'clock it was still going on.

The general opinion seems to be that anything is fair that can prevent the success of Hill in his efforts to seat enough Democrats to control the Legislature.

Senator James T. Edwards, who defeated Perry Vedder in Chautauque district, is today the biggest man in the political muddle which engages the attention of the political leaders of the State.

He is bigger than the Legislature itself, for without him the Senate cannot organize with a legal quorum. The Democrats have sixteen Senators, but it takes seventeen to make a quorum.

Senator Edwards designates himself as an "Independent Republican," but has been quoted as saying that he would sit with the Democrats to organize the Senate tomorrow.

Fifteen of the Republican Senators, said to favor the plan of absenting themselves tomorrow to prevent a quorum, held a meeting here today in conjunction with Platt and other leaders to determine what to do. United States Senator Hiscok was also present.

Edwards had been invited to meet with them and his failure to respond is regarded as ominous.

After a lengthy discussion all Republicans seemed to agree on one point and that is that unless Edwards refuses to aid the Democrats in organizing the Senate it will be useless for other Republican Senators to remain away.

Some philosophical Republicans profess to be indifferent as to Edwards's attitude. As to his standing on the contest between Walker (Dem.) and Sherwood (Rep.) in the Twenty-eighth district, Edwards is said to have stated that he would not vote for Walker, that no man should be admitted to the Senate who had 1640 votes less than his opponent, and that the electors of the district should have another election. Most of the Senators left tonight for Albany.

ALBANY (N. Y.), Jan. 4.—The Democratic Assemblymen tonight caucused, naming Robert P. Bush of Chemung (Gov. Hill's county) for Speaker.

The Republicans named Gen. J. W. Husted, which constitutes him leader of the Republican minority.

The Democratic Senate caucus named Senator Cantor for president pro tem.

Late tonight an Associated Press reporter met Senator Edwards, and the latter said he would certainly attend the Senate meeting tomorrow.

FOUGHT FOR THEIR FLAG.

English Salvationists Assailed by a Savage Mob.

Mounted Police Ride Down the Crowd of Men and Women.

The Army Finally Retreats in Good Order to Its Barracks.

Other Foreign News—Details of a Marine Disaster Which Cost Fifteen Lives—Grand Duke Sergius Has a Rough Adventure.

By Telegram to The Times.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The troubles between the Salvation Army and authorities at Eastbourne resulted yesterday in a riot of unusual violence. For a long time there has been open war between the Salvationists and police. The former assert that Eastbourne officials have displayed a feeling of religious intolerance in their treatment of the army and so determined to maintain what they claimed their official rights that they proposed to introduce a bill in Parliament to repeal or amend the Eastbourne Improvement Act under which the town officials prevent Salvationists from holding meetings on the streets.

Yesterday the Eastbourne contingent of the Salvation Army was divided into four sections, stationed in different parts of the town. The police broke up these meetings with some trouble, but in the afternoon sixty of the army again sallied from the barracks and proceeded to the beach, followed by an immense crowd, which threatened them with all manner of ill-treatment. Once upon the beach the Salvationists knelt down on the sand in prayer. As they did so, they linked arms, better to repel the assaults of the irreligious mob, should the latter take it into their heads to charge.

The mob hooted and yelled and finally made an ugly rush. Some of the Salvationists were thrown to the ground, but immediately resumed their kneeling position and continued praying. Several times the rushing was repeated, but the Salvationists paid no more attention to the mob than to the wind, and were seriously hurt. A number of police were present and the mob yelled them for not dispersing the Salvationists.

As soon as the praying was concluded the Salvationists rose to their feet. This seemed to signal for a preconcerted attack, for the mob immediately swooped down upon the devoted band, scattering them in wild disorder. Many were struck, kicked and otherwise ill-treated. The musical instruments used by the Salvationists seemed especially to excite the ire of the mob, and the persons bearing them were singled out for more than the usual brutal treatment. The mob got possession of the instruments, and, after smashing them, threw them into the street.

Then a detachment of mounted police charged the crowd. They made no distinction between men and women. They rode down upon the crowd, trampling the rowdies, male and female, under the feet of their horses. Many of the crowd were severely hurt.

The Salvationists declare that the police, instead of protecting them, deliberately struck them and rode over them. Their clothes were torn and hats lost. A number of women lost their skirts and jackets in the wild rush following the charge of the police, their garments being torn off them in the desperate struggle to escape being trampled on by the horses. During the melee a banner of the Salvation Army fell into the hands of the enemy. Some Salvationists charged to regain the flag, a fierce fight resulted. Finally the Salvationists regained the standard, and under a rain of blows succeeded in getting away from the mob with the flag in their possession.

After some little time the Salvationists, their clothing bedraggled and faces showing marks of ill-treatment, rallied around their standard. Finally the Salvationists regained the standard, and under a rain of blows succeeded in getting away from the mob with the flag in their possession.

FIFTEEN DROWNED.

Details of the Collision Between the Nordland and a Bark.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The steamer Nordland, which was in collision with the British bark Childwall, the latter going down with fifteen of her crew, has returned to Antwerp with her bows stove in. The pilot of the Childwall says he saw the steamer's lights fifteen minutes before the collision, the suddenly starboarded her helm, apparently intending to cross the bows of the bark. The pilot shouted a warning to the crew, but before they could get up the vessels met. The Childwall was at from the port side through to within six feet of the starboard side and sank in two minutes. The sea was high and there was no chance to lower boats. Five of the men climbed into the rigging part of the mizenmast and end of the bowsprit, remaining above water. If the fifteen drowned, twelve perished on the ship; the other three were washed off the bowsprit when the tide rose.

The pilot said the Nordland stood by a hour and lowered two boats, which failed to reach the shipwrecked men wing to the rough sea. He thinks the men on the bowsprit at least might have been saved. After being four hours lashed to the mizenmast in bitter cold the steamer Ipswich hove in sight and they were rescued.

A Socialist Sensation.

BERLIN, Jan. 4.—A sensation has been caused by the publication in Socialist papers of a confidential circular sent by the government to directors of the different state railways. The labor agitators make political capital out of the circular, which they aver plainly shows that the government is inimical to the interests of the laboring classes. The circular declares in effect the present financial position such as to render necessary the adoption of a policy of retrenchment, and directors of state railways are informed that they must reduce the wages of employees and disallow all whose services can possibly be dispensed with.

Fatal Quarrel Between Dairymen.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 4.—Charles Clark shot and killed Thomas Slater at the Hotz ranch this morning. The men were partners in the dairy business, but had trouble regarding an accounting. This morning Slater had a quarrel with Mrs. Clark about breakfast and her husband interfered. The men had a struggle and Mrs. Clark claims that Slater was trying to draw a pistol from his pocket. She seized his arm, Slater kicked the woman and started to leave the room, when Clark shot him through the head. Clark surrendered himself to the sheriff.

A DUKE IN DISGUISE.

The Czar's Brother Has an Adventure with Russian Policemen.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Standard's St. Petersburg correspondent says that it is reported that Grand Duke Sergius disguised himself as a peasant in order to discover the truth about difficulties in the purchase of bread, and had a squabble with a baker and was thrown into the street by policemen, who severely hurt him and were about to arrest him when he revealed his identity, whereupon the three police officials committed suicide.

King Leopold Fully Recovered.

Brussels, Jan. 4.—The alarming reports concerning the health of King Leopold, which have been circulated are entirely without foundation in fact. It was officially announced today that His Majesty is quite recovered from his recent attack of influenza.

An Author Attempts Suicide.

Paris, Jan. 4.—Manpassant, the well-known French author, who is seeking at Cannes to recover from nervous disorders from which he is suffering, made two futile attempts to commit suicide last Friday night.

The author's friends had removed the cartridges from his revolver. It is announced tonight that he will be placed in an asylum.

German Miners Strike.

BERLIN, Jan. 4.—The miners of the Holzappel district, near Wiesbaden, have struck. Troops are keeping order.

WASHINGTON BUDGET.

Democrats Want an Early Adjournment of Congress.

An Effort to be Made to Give Statehood to Oklahoma—McMillin to Preside in the House Tomorrow.

By Telegram to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] The Post tomorrow will say: The statement published some time ago to the effect that leading Democrats are desirous of bringing the present session to a speedy adjournment will receive corroboration in an amendment to the rules which will be offered by Representative McCreary of Kentucky. Mr. McCreary believes that all appropriation bills ought to be reported to the House within the first eighty days of the long and the first forty days of the short session, so that they can receive speedy consideration and thus insure an early adjournment. His amendment is made applicable to all sessions of Congress.

Those German Thalers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Director of the Mint Leach, speaking of the arrangements said to have been completed between Germany and Austria-Hungary to demonetize the silver coins known as the vereln thalers, said: "All Austrian union thalers are now in Germany and considered national coins in that empire. In fact all vereln thalers are now in Germany. The amount is variously estimated at from 400,000,000 to 500,000,000 marks or about $100,000,000. The Austrian vereln thalers, which it is proposed to melt down, are embraced in this amount. They are variously estimated at from $18,000,000 to $28,000,000. From the dispatch it would seem as if Austria-Hungary had decided to buy these silver coins and melt them into bars, for the reason that silver florins are quoted below their value on 'change.'"

McMillin in Crisp's Place.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—It is definitely settled that Speaker Crisp will not call the House to order tomorrow when it reconvenes. The Speaker continues to improve in health, but his recovery is very slow, and he has not yet progressed far enough to make it safe for him to leave his room. There seems to be a general belief on the part of the Democratic members that McMillin will be selected Speaker pro tem. Efforts will be made today to obtain the speaker's wishes on the subject, and custom has made the speaker's preference almost a determining factor in such cases.

Purchases of Silver.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The amount of silver offered at the Treasury Department today aggregated 2,028,000 ounces. Statehood for Oklahoma.

COAST BALL TOSSERS.

The Proposed Consolidation May Not Take Place.

Some of the Magnates Oppose the Plan on Various Grounds.

Much Depends on the Action of the Southern Pacific.

Other Coast News—Several 'Frisco Firms Attached—An Old Physician's Suicide—Funeral of the Victims of the Hanford Fire.

By Telegram to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] The Pacific Coast baseball consolidated scheme is by no means an accomplished fact yet. There is dissension among the baseball magnates. While President Moore, Managers Flynn, Harris, Rockwell and Hardie are in favor of the plan, Managers Robinson and Hudson are opposed and Mrs. Vice would like to know what she paid $1500 for if it was not for the Sacramento franchise. How Magnate Bushnell stands is not entirely known, but he will be in favor of the consolidation if he can be convinced that it will not prove a failure.

The matter all rests with the Southern Pacific Company. If the railroad will give the rate asked by the baseball managers the scheme will go through; if not it will fail. Manager Rockwell, who is president-secretary and treasurer of the league, said today: "There will be no further meeting of the managers on the matter for some time at least. The matter has been canvassed at length, and all parties at present in this city are in favor of consolidation, providing we can get a suitable rate from the railroad company. We will get an answer from the company Wednesday, and then Mr. Hardie and Mr. Vanderbeck will return north and see Bushnell and Hudson, then a decision will be reached."

"Of course, if the railway company refuses to give us a rate in which we can keep the clubs traveling long distances without making a financial loss, the whole scheme will fall through. Hudson, who owns half the Portland club, opposes consolidation on account of the 50 per cent. of gate receipts, but that is the only plan on which consolidation can be carried through. The scheme is a good one, and I think it will please every one. The season opens with all clubs playing in California for six weeks. Then all go north for three weeks. Then they change around, some north and some south. The season will end, as it began, in California. Mr. Vanderbeck was formerly owner in the Portland club. He has been to Los Angeles and will probably be at the head of a club in that city. In that case the six clubs will be Los Angeles, San Jose, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and Tacoma."

THE ROYAL Worcester corset

Stands at the head as the very best corset in this country today. This house has today the largest corset department and very much the largest sales of any house in this city. An invitation is given to examine our new corset window; you will see that the claim we put forth as the largest corset house is more than sustained. We desire to impress upon your mind the magnificent shape of the Royal Worcester corset; the elegant finish and the reputation of the finest and best made corset in existence; and when you consider that a Royal Worcester costs no more than a cheap and inferior made corset, there leaves no room for argument. We sell a Royal Worcester for $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $5, $6 and $8; they come in long, medium and short waists. We also carry an extra long corset in two or three different grades; also an extra short corset, and when you consider the Royal Worcester, by the side of any first-class make you will, in nine cases out of ten, decide in favor of the Royal Worcester. We wish to impress upon your mind two really magnificent corsets, one at $4 and one at $6; a lady who wants something extra fine and good will find these two numbers very superior. And when it comes to a dollar corset we beat the world; we also have a full line of other makes at 50 and 75 cents. This advertisement has nothing to say about anything else but corsets. We intend doubling up sales on corsets this year and we shall do so solely upon the merits of the Royal Worcester corset. DR. WOH,

The Eminent Chinese Physician.

Dr. Woh's life work has been from early youth one of persistent and untiring observation, study and investigation, as fully as lay in his power to perfect himself in all branches of the art of healing human sickness and disease. Born in China, of influential parents, of a family whose ancestors have been for generations deservedly renowned as leading physicians, Dr. Woh naturally followed in the footsteps of his fathers. In China he has practiced his profession for several years, being at one time a physician in the Imperial Hospital, and in America for a long time. His great number of patients, his wonderful and many cures, and the great list of letters from grateful and thankful patrons now prove him to be a remarkable and successful healer of sickness and all diseases.

For a long time I have been suffering with a bladder and kidney troubles. No doctoring or medicines seemed to do me good. I consulted the best physicians and surgeons in Los Angeles city. They gave me morphine and drugs, but no relief could I obtain. After suffering great pain and having my passage almost entirely closed I fourteen days ago began using Dr. Woh's medicines. Today I am perfectly well. I do consider Dr. Woh the most successful physician in Southern California. C. A. STEELE, 318 and 318 S. Main st., Los Angeles, Cal. October 13, 1891.

I have tried many doctors for heart disease but have derived no benefit until Dr. Woh, the Chinese physician, of Los Angeles, prescribed for me. I took his medicines and followed his directions and today I am perfectly well. F. E. KING, Justice of the Peace, Burbank, Cal. Oct. 30, 1891.

In Cleveland, O., many months ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, terminating in asthma. The doctors said there was no hope of my recovery, but that a change to California might prove my life. February last I came to San Bernardino and doctored with three physicians but obtained no relief. Finally Dr. Woh was recommended to me by a friend. I took his medicines and followed his directions and today I am perfectly well. MISS GRACE M. FIELD, San Bernardino, Cal. Oct. 30, 1891.

Dr. Woh has hundreds of similar testimonials, but space alone prevents further publication of them here. Dr. Woh is the oldest and best-known Chinese Physician in Southern California. His many cures have been remarkable, involving Female Troubles, Tumors and every form of disease. All communications will be regarded as strictly confidential. Free consultation to every one and all are cordially invited to call upon Dr. Woh at his office.

SOME WOMEN WHO STEAL

THERE ARE SOME WHO MAKE A BUSINESS OF THEFT.

The One Who Nips Pocketbooks Is the Most Dangerous—How She Does Her Notorious Work—Penny Shoplifters and What They Take—Professionals.

Always as the holiday season approaches the big bazaars become daily more and more thronged with women. The danger of theft through shoplifting increases a Christmas and New Year's approach. The proprietors avail themselves of every safeguard against a dangerous class of customers whose mission is to plunder instead of to purchase.

It does not take many experienced men to watch a big store. Half a dozen can do easily. In most instances the number of bazaar detectives on duty at one time is much less than the number stated here. Such a guard goes about his work noiselessly and unobtrusively. The men are constantly moving here and there, quietly watching the great throngs of customers, but doing it in such a clever fashion as to attract absolutely no attention. To it a woman is seen to nip something, not a word is said while she is in the store, for that would only result in creating a scene and would tend to scare away trade. On the other hand, she may stay in the bazaar an hour or more after she has taken the merchandise for the cloth, buying here and there, or pretending to buy, and no one will say a word to her. But this is merely part of the general scheme.

Once let the shoplifter lure herself into the dream that she is safe, and then let her start to go away with her booty, and before she has gone a yard from the store she has been arrested, and a quick, so sudden, so relentless the vigilance of the bazaar detectives.

In the big bazars there are four classes of women thieves. The newest class, and in a measure the most dangerous, is represented by the woman who nips pocketbooks from dry goods counters. This is the way she works.

She selects her store—one that she thinks is "right," as the phrase is, that is, one in which she thinks she can plunder with a fair chance of getting out again uncaught—she selects her store, mingles with the crowd, prices this and that, and in the meantime keeps her eyes on her fellow shoppers.

NEVER LAY YOUR FINGER DOWN.

It is the custom of thousands of women while buying to carry their purses in their hand and occasionally to lay them on the counter while examining some article they contemplate purchasing. Here is the opportunity the pocketbook thief has waited for. No sooner is the woman's hand turned than the thief brushes past and nips the pocketbook in a twinkling, then disappears in the big throng. In nine cases out of ten she is never caught.

Never leave your pocketbook on a counter in these big stores, even for a moment. You may regret it if you do.

Among shoplifters there is always a large class represented by those poor and perhaps otherwise honest women who are sometimes weak enough to yield to the opportunity to steal. With this class it is opportunity that makes the thief.

Such a woman as this may always be found in the big stores. She comes in with the best intentions in the world. She sees her chance. Today she nips a handkerchief. Tomorrow a feather. Next day a paper cutter. She throws regret and conscience to the winds. She is poor and her children are starving. That will be her repentance.

The professional shoplifter is of course the most dangerous of her class. Yet in the very largest stores she is not especially feared, from the fact that the detectives are supposed to recognize her on sight and order her away. The professional shoplifter usually has the front of her dress made in such a fashion as to contain, yet absolutely invisible, a great pocket, often running the entire length of the skirt and as wide as the dress goods. She is usually accompanied by a friend, who engages the attention of the clerk, while the shoplifter seizes her first opportunity to steal something. In the case of dress goods or other bulky material, the scheme of the thief is to first get the bulk of cloth covered with other odds and ends lying on the counter, then suddenly slide it, quick as lightning, into her yawning pocket.

Dozens of customers will be passing to and fro, but in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred no one will observe the thief. Even if some woman does see her take the silk she will never say a word. At least not until she gets home, when she will tell her friends at dinner.

PROFESSIONAL SHOPLIFTERS. But women invariably leave the concerns of other women severely alone. They do not care to be mixed up in anything that savors of publicity. Hence the shoplifter must be caught by the bazaar detectives or she will perhaps escape for good with her plunder.

There is another class of women who steal from the big bazars and these are generally people high up in life, with beautiful homes and all this world can give in the way of luxury and station.

Why do such women steal? Scout the idea of kleptomania. There is another and more logical reason. It is the fact that they have the fever of robbery in their blood, and it draws them to the most pitiful length imaginable. A woman who is caught in the clutches of such a desire will haunt a big bazaar for hours, watching her chance to steal some bit of lace, a feather or some skin of worsted. She may have $50 in her pocket. Her jewelry may have cost $5,000, and her husband's income may be far beyond the dreams of avarice.

Yet she will steal. Steal a nine-cent paper cutter. Steal a fifteen-cent feather. Steal a skein of silk. Steal anything for which opportunity offers. Some day she will be caught. Then there will be a scene. Disgrace, perhaps. Certainly the brand of label before the world. For as a result of the poor woman who nips a hundred dollar purse and the rich woman who steals a nine-cent feather, what is the difference?

There is no difference. Both are simply thieves.—New York World.

Why a Horse Eats Often.

The horse can conveniently eat for twenty hours out of the twenty-four. A horse which is in good health has a good appetite at all times, and is able to stand plenty of work, and is rarely on the sick list. To be a good feeder, especially on a journey, is a great recommendation in the opinion of every good judge of horse flesh. The reason of a horse being such a constant eater is that its stomach is really small in proportion to the size of its body, and therefore it requires feeding often, not less than four times a day, two of which should be early in the morning and at night, while the horse is in the stall he always within a race.—London Tit-Bits.

Early Rising.

From a very ancient date there has been a class of wisemen who were unwilling to admit that any good could emanate from those who did not "rise with the lark." These would-be philosophers held mere early rising to be a virtue which covered a multitude of sins, and that early rising and early rising would make men "healthy, wealthy and wise," despite the fact that milkmen, chimney sweeps and others, who are earliest out of their bed, were never distinguished for those said characteristics or acquisitions.

Should you argue that early rising, like cold baths in winter, did not agree with all constitutions, they would refer to the other person, or thing, but not the least possible relation to our circumstances.

Imagine the comfort (?) of having one of these early rising philosophers as a neighbor, or perchance a dweller under the same roof, and he not only rising at unreasonable hours, but insisting upon disturbing the "forty morning winks" of the other inmates.

These good people are not aware that they have mistaken a habit for a characteristic, and you could not convince them that it is as often a bad as a good trait. They have never observed that many evil doers are frequently stirring about early in the morning.

If, however, early rising is used by them as an argument for forthrightness, then much that is said may be true; still it is really more important that a man should obtain a sufficient amount of refreshing sleep than that he should rise each morn at a given hour.—Fannie L. Fancher in Housekeeper.

Oysters on Trees.

"Chesapeake bay has the finest kind of oysters," said the Talking Man. "The reason they are sometimes found growing on tree branches is this: The spawn of the oyster floats about in the water, tossed by wind and waves. It has the quality of attaching itself firmly to any solid substance it touches. Sometimes it might be the bottom of a ship, a rock or a tree branch. You know the bottom of a ship often needs scraping on account of the shellfish adhering to it.

"Now, the branches of trees often droop into the water, and they do it along the borders of the Chesapeake the same as on the banks of any other river or bay. At high tide such branches will be covered with water, and when the tide goes back the branches come to the surface again.

"The spawn sticks on those boughs when they are beneath the waves. In a few days the tiny oysters begin to develop, and before long at every low tide the branch can be seen hanging out, with little oysters growing all over it.

"Sometimes a branch which is often under water will be nearly covered with small oysters. It looks very old, of course, but it's a common enough sight down there.

"Grow? They don't grow very large, to be sure. To attain perfection an oyster must always be under water, and these hang half the time out of it. When they are exposed too long to the hot sun they die. Their weight often causes them to fall off."—Harper's Young People.

TWO TELLING PAPERS.

A Ten Years' Showing for Los Angeles

The Decennial Anniversary Number of THE TIMES, published December 4, 1891, and the Annual Trade Number, published January 1, 1892, are issues of exceptional merit, making together three full sheets filled with solid information about the rare country of the Southern Pacific Slope.

Citizens! spread these publications abroad by hundreds and thousands of copies! They are the most interesting and effective missionary agents that can be sent out, by reason, particularly, of the ten years' showing and contrast presented in their columns. They are distinctive Los Angeles publications, and make the city and county luminous.

All the matter in these issues is of permanent interest—the merely ephemeral portions having been eliminated. They will, therefore, be timely for months to come; but now is the best time to circulate them, and 100,000 copies can be supplied for that purpose.

Orders sent to the counting-room—by mail, messenger or TIMES carriers—will be carefully filled.

The two papers, wrapped together and postpaid, 10 cents. Prices in lots: 5 copies, 50 cents; 10 copies, $1.00. Send your distant friend the two papers and enlighten him about Los Angeles and surroundings.

Orange Heights

Is a new and attractive subdivision of a portion of the high mesa land of South Riverside Colony, and being frostless and not subject to injurious winds, offers special advantages for the cultivation of the

LEMON.

The best authorities in Southern California commend these lands for the raising of Lemons. One syndicate is arranging to plant 1000 acres in Oranges and Lemons, one-half each.

Aside from its wonderful advantages as a fruit-producing colony, South Riverside is an important manufacturing point. The Pacific Clay Manufacturing Company's vitrified sewer and water-pipe works—the largest on this coast—are located here. Also the Porphyry Paving Company, the Standard Fertilizing Company, and two pottery works. This is the shipping point for the famous Temescal tin mine plant. A company is now being formed to work on a large scale the finest cement rock found in the United States. This latter company will probably employ 200 or more men. NEVER before has there been offered to the public a book of reference approaching this in completeness, compactness, or cheapness. It contains 720 pages of encyclopedic information concerning all branches of knowledge, comprising, in a condensed form, stripped of unnecessary verbiage, the very cream of the Encyclopedia Britannica and the latest edition of Chambers's Encyclopedia, with the addition of a great many American subjects found in neither of the larger encyclopedias.

Besides being a comprehensive gazetteer of universal knowledge, it is also a complete Atlas of the World, containing eighty full-page maps. Some idea may be gained of the magnitude of this wonderful work and the vast number of subjects treated of, from the following table:

| Number of Pages | Size of Page | Total Number of Pages | Total Number of Words | Number of Subjects | Total Length of Columns, Inches | Number of Words for One Cent. |

720 7 3/4 x 10 200,800 1,700,000 18,000 21,600 3,500

If the columns were placed end to end they would reach over one-third of a mile. Just think of 1800 feet of choice reading, compiled from the latest sources, on 18,000 subjects, daily interest to everybody, for a sum per word that requires five figures to express the fraction, and 80 Full-Page Maps, Free.

The whole forming the largest, latest, and most complete Family Cyclopaedia ever produced. The maps are corrected to date and beautifully colored by the p. blishers celebrated patent plate process to distinguish States and political boundaries. The type is new and clear, the paper good and firm.

The ordinary price of an atlas alone, containing these maps would be at least as much as the retail price of this entire book, of which they form but a single feature. The volume is issued in two styles. Handsomely bound in cloth with gold title, and side stamp, $6.00. Elegantly bound in half Russia, with gold title, and side stamp, $10.00.

This Splendid Book, indispensable to everybody—the student, the teacher, the scholar, the writer, the business man, and the intelligent citizen—will be sent, together with one year's subscription to the SATURDAY TIMES AND WEEKLY MIRROR, for the unprecedentedly low price of $2.50! Or, it will be furnished with the Daily Times one year, all for $11.00. For further information address

A Great Many People Down with the Grip.

Atmosphere Has Little to Do with the Disease.

The Risk of Trading a Horse with a Stranger.

Athletic Club Election Under the New By-Laws—Salvation Army Jubilee Day—Personal Mention and Brevities.

[Branch office, No. 50 East Colorado street, where news, advertisements and orders for this paper are received.]

Notwithstanding the balmy winter climate of Pasadena the grip prevails here at present almost to the extent of an epidemic. The popular fallacy, however, that the atmosphere has anything material to do with the disease has been dispelled by prominent physicians of the country, who say that the history of the disease shows that atmospheric conditions have very little to do with its increase or decrease.

The grip originated in Prussia, where the atmosphere is very cold and dry. It has spread and prospered in damp and warm climates, and there the atmosphere can have little to do with it. But it is a noteworthy fact that while many people are afflicted in this community, a very few fatal cases have been reported. "One of the alarming features of the disease," said a prominent physician yesterday, "is the liability of those who have apparently recovered from its attacks to develop pulmonary disease." It is now feared by Eastern physicians that consumption will largely increase as the grip itself dies away.

The best way to avoid the grip is to watch closely for the preliminary symptoms and when the first note of warning has been struck to call upon a physician to receive advice. It is now feared by Eastern physicians that consumption will largely increase as the grip itself dies away.

LAST WEDNESDAY a stranger brought a horse to Livestockman Davenport of Pasadena to effect a trade. After the usual amount of parleying the deal was fixed up and the stranger departed with a bay horse of Mr. Davenport's and a small sum of money to boot. It was not long before another stranger came along and claimed to be the owner of the horse that Mr. Davenport had received in trade. Mr. Davenport went to Los Angeles and discovered that stranger No. 1 had sold his horse to Mr. Wickham. Later developments went to show that stranger No. 1 had actually stolen the horse No. 1 from stranger No. 2, and it was not long before stranger No. 1 had been taken in custody by Constable Nesworthy. Mr. Davenport and stranger No. 2 have since regained possession of their respective horses, and tomorrow morning stranger No. 1 will be brought to account before Justice Gardner to answer for his misdeeds.

COMING TENNIS TOURNAMENTS. Several interesting local tennis events are on the tapis. On Saturday of next week it is proposed to open the day at the Walnut street court, on which occasion several invited players from abroad will be on hand to contest with the crack players of the home city. Nothing but men's singles will be played, and invitations will be extended to every club in the Western or printed ball-association to send representatives. Hand-some first and second prizes will be awarded, so that there will be more in it for the winners than mere glory. It will be the aim of the club to get the best players in this section of the State here on that day, and as a result Pasadena will be privileged to witness an exceptionally fine exhibition of this popular game as it should be played.

POMONA.

A General Demand for More Good Houses for Rent.

Not a Desirable Place in the City Vacant at the Present Time—Young Men's "Open" House—News in Brief.

[THE TIMES branch office for Pomona is in the real estate room of French & Lawrence, where news, advertisements and subscriptions are received.]

The question is asked: Why don't some of Pomona's enterprising capitalists put up a few good houses for rent? It is a well-known fact that though over 200 houses were built last year that there is not a house for rent anywhere in the city. The other day one of the prominent real estate men said: "I had three good houses for rent this morning, only vacated yesterday, and two already have been taken, and the other will be before night. This is the only city in California where there is plenty of labor and plenty of business, but no houses, except two or three little box cottages far out of town."

And while we are talking about things of interest to Pomona, and houses for rent, we ought to have some way to get out of the house when we do them. We have paved streets than any city doing half the business. To be sure the soil takes up moisture rapidly, but there is plenty of it at the curb. When one gets out of the business streets. We need at least ten miles of paved sidewalk in Pomona and, although it "comes high we must have it."

The following young men, not to be outdone by the young ladies' "open house" reception, held a "leap-year" "open house" at the home of Mrs. J. L. Overton, January 2, last. Messrs. Bert Barley, Howard A. Broughton, Frank Johnston, A. B. Grant, Charles Zies and Ed G. Howe. The young gentlemen entertained in a royal manner, and received the young ladies of the Theta Upsilon Club.

Where? Where went you on that August day. When out of sight you took your way? The sun was warm, the winds were low, No breath of bitterness did blow For dying Summer as it went; But bitter, bitter breath was spent On the first tears for you that day. As out of sight you took your way, Where did you go, my love, my dear? Into what country, far or near? By mountain path or shoreless main, Or over that wealth of heart and brain, That voice of music and that face, That made the world an empty place For me to me, when out of sight, And sound and touch they vanished quick? Where did you go? Oh, love, come back One moment down that shadowed track, And give me news and tell me where, What way your wandering steps did fare, And if some tender hand did lead, For some voice did soothe, perhaps at need, So that you missed not over much In that strange hour my voice and touch. Ah, never had I failed before, To follow where your footsteps bore, Or by your side to hold my way— Ah, never yet until that day. Just as the August day was spent, Upon that unknown path you went, And that unknown path you went, And that unknown path you went, And break this burden of despair! NORA PERBY.

REDLANDS. The citizens have been preparing for a demonstration upon the completion of the city of the Southern Pacific Railroad. But this affair will now be indefinitely postponed, as a war is now on between the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe, the latter having got out an injunction to prevent the Southern Pacific from crossing a certain piece of land and competing for lines into the city may not be secured for some time.

The land in question was owned by one Somers, who had paid in the land, Fox & Park. This firm decided the right-of-way to the Santa Fe through one of the streets, travel not to be obstructed. Mr. Somers gave the land, and the Southern Pacific, and an injunction was served upon the Southern Pacific people to prevent them from building. The question now is, who owns the right-of-way, and when will this be determined?

AN EDITOR SCORED. There was quite a commotion for our orderly city upon the streets Sunday, caused by the scoring of Editor E. F. Howe of the Facts by H. Ellis. The trouble grew out of the fact that Ellis's boy, John, a lad abouts years old, on complaint of Mr. Waite for stealing oranges. The boy was tried by Justice Camp and fined $8.50. The Times index first published a notice of the affair, but stated it in such a way as to implicate the boy's mother. The error was corrected next day, however. The Facts then published a note respecting it, and this enraged Ellis and he pitched into Howe with his tongue. Howe promised to make a complete statement of the affair in his next issue, and the matter was dropped.

[Branch office at Stewart Hotel news stand, where news, advertisements and orders for THE TIMES are received.]

The sensational talk of the streets now is the conduct of one Frank E. Hill, a very smooth and polite young man who came here about four months ago from San Diego and secured employment in a drug store. He soon worked himself into favor with a young lady by the name of Mary Wozencraft, employed in the postoffice here. It is said that she was engaged to a young man in San Francisco, but young Hill made himself so very agreeable and represented himself as possessed of great wealth that the young lady broke the engagement and consented to marry Hill. The ceremony was to have taken place at 10 o'clock, New Year's morning, but before some one came here from San Francisco saying that he was known there as a married man, Hill would probably have received rough handling at the hands of some of our citizens if he could have been caught, and rumor has it that Mr. Wozencraft, the young lady's father, has already made one attempt to shoot the fellow.

Mrs. Hill, in an appearance Sunday and had with her a certificate of marriage to Frank E. Hill, and she has gone to Los Angeles with an officer to identify her husband with the fellow who is now in the hands of the law.

The funeral of Mrs. Lucy L. White, wife of Robert T. White, was held Sunday afternoon at the late residence of the deceased on E street. Rev. Eli Fay, D.D., conducted the service, and the choir of the Unitarian Church, of which Mrs. White was a member, furnished music. A friend to and helper of the sick and needy is lost in the death of Mrs. White, and her place in the home and hearts of many families will long be unfilled.

The citizens have been preparing for a demonstration upon the completion of the city of the Southern Pacific Railroad. But this affair will now be indefinitely postponed, as a war is now on between the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe, the latter having got out an injunction to prevent the Southern Pacific from crossing a certain piece of land and competing for lines into the city may not be secured for some time.

Among the marriage licenses issued yesterday was one to a Chinaman named Ly Sing, aged 27 years, and Ora May Foster, aged 19, a native of California, both living in Los Angeles. This is the second or third time that licenses have been issued to Chinamen to marry women of other nationalities than their own. Nothing is known about the girl in the present case.

ONE ROUND OF GAYETY.

Holiday week was one round of gayety in the social world. Four prominent weddings, the most elegant of the season and receptions, masquerades and evening parties galore kept the belles and beaux in a constant whirl of dissipation. This week will be a trifle duller—naturally so—for there is a limit even to the society girl's powers of endurance.

Sherwood's concert on Thursday evening will be one of the principal social as well as musical attractions for the week, for every one will want to hear one of America's greatest pianists.

NEW YEAR AFTERMATH.

The chimes of the new year have not yet died away and reports of gayeties continue to pour in. Among the pleasant New Year parties was one given by Miss Limer (at the Sixteenth street, where a jolly company gathered to bid farewell to the old year and welcome the new with games, songs and dancing.

Elegant refreshments were served and after wishing each other a Happy New Year and thanking the pretty hostess the guests said good morning to meet again at 9 o'clock to form a picnic party to enjoy the Valley Hunt festivities at Pasadena. After lunching at the Raymond and witnessing the races at the Tournament of Roses they returned home and in the evening were entertained by Miss Jones at her father's handsome home on Ninth street.

Among the party were Misses Louise Jones, Mary Eustis of Boston, Elmer Patten, Mina Jeane and Messers. Coude Jones, J. Fred Blake, Harry Gernan and Jesse Jeane.

A NEW YEAR'S DINNER PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Fayman entertained some of their special friends at an elegant New Year's dinner. The menu consisted of all the delicacies that Southern California can afford. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Allison Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cabel, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Andrews and Mrs. Cuttler.

REMSBURG-HINES.

Last night at 8 o'clock Miss Rosa L. Remsburg was married to Charles G. Hines, superintendent of the mailing division of the San Francisco postoffice. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father, A. H. Statham, No. 2147 South Los Angeles street, in the presence of the relatives and a few immediate friends of the family, and was conducted by Rev. S. H. Dimon. An elaborate supper was partaken of and numerous toasts proposed and responded to. The presents were numerous and elegant and betokened the great esteem in which the young couple are held among their acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Hines leave for San Francisco, where they will make their future home. The bride's train today and will be followed by the best wishes of their many friends in Los Angeles.

OOL. DUNCAN'S OYSTERS.

The Rival Brand Net "a Good Enough Morgan" for Los Angeles.

BROADWAY MARKET, LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4, 1922.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES] Will you do me the favor of publishing a few lines in your issue in regard to the following object: In entering business in this city my chief object was to benefit the masses and especially the poor by furnishing them with oysters at a low price. The monopoly, which has made millions out of the richer classes by importing seed oysters from Connecticut, and robbing them into the mud and slime of the waters of San Francisco Bay, where they fatten upon the cesspools and sewers and filth of that great city, is a really exercised at the step, page of their sales in Los Angeles and vicinity, and their representative has arrived to take into the cause. With the agent here the first effort has been made to get oysters, far o to make a discrimination in favor of the monopoly, to enable them to compete advantageously with the real oyster, and in this they failed signally, as the gentlemen in charge of that institution are fair and deal with all alike, according to their rules and regulations.

Failing in this scheme, the next proposition is to undersell by fixing their prices 10 per cent lower than mine to drive me into sales without profit; and so by spending a few thousands again to bring their monopoly in play.

Now this game will not work. The ships have a few million dollars worth of oysters today, and we will sell just as many as the public wants—and no more. The other oysters can laugh and grow fat in the pure and crystal waters of the gulf until such time as we want them. The oysters cost a certain amount, and I fixed the lowest rates that could be made at the start. Those who want good oysters will buy them; and those who prefer the nastiness of San Francisco Bay—in which the other brand has been gathered after soaking and fattening in it for two or three years—can eat as many as they like with my full approval. But what a commentary on the Morgan Company! That they have made a fortune out of their customers with such a product, charging them 75 cents for a can of thirty such mud-bivalves; and now talk of dropping to 50 cents when they see what havoc I have made in ten days by selling thirty-four splendid bivalves for 35 cents, is simply a confession that the public has been deceived for years. Having plenty to live on without profits, I will rather enjoy the spectacle of such a monopoly putting down prices.

Yours truly, BLANKIN DUNCAN.

Fully 100 people attend the ball given on New Year's night and it was generally conceded to be the most gorgeous military and naval ball ever given in California.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

CALIFORNIA WINE.

Much More Exported in 1921 Than in Any Previous Year.

The following communication has been received by THE TIMES from J. D. Kneen of Rosedale:

ROSEDALE, Jan. 4, 1922.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES] The following cutting, taken from the Scotsman of Edinburgh of the 5th ult., is just at hand: "The wine yield in California for the current year is at least one-third less than in 1890. The total yield, including 5,000,000 gallons of sweet wines, will be below 15,000,000 gallons."

I am inclined to believe this is misleading, but for statistics given in some of our Pacific Coast papers. If so please give it a deal, as the circulation of the Scotsman is large and will cause a wrong impression to exist in the minds of many interested.

The California vintage has varied from 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 gallons. The product of 1891 was not below 15,000,000 gallons, but about 15,000,000 gallons. The wine business has been under a cloud during the past four or five years, owing to prices being forced down below a remunerative rate, sound new vines selling in the vineyards as low as 10 cents a gallon. This, of course, reduced prices of wine grapes, which went as low as $5 a ton for Missions. The cause of this disastrous state of affairs was the forcing upon the market by weak holders of a vast amount of bad and indifferent wine, poorly made and lacking age, often manufactured from unsuitable varieties of grapes. Many in consequence abandoned the business in disgust, drying or making vinegar of their grapes, those remaining being mostly skilled winemakers. The turn of the tide has now come.

The year 1891 has been the largest shipping year in the history of the trade. The demand has been very large, both from home consumption and export. The exports in wood have been about 2,000,000 gallons greater than they were in 1890, and 2000 more cases were exported. The following shows the exports to all countries, by sea, for 1890 and 1891:

1891.....5,289,234 11,084 $2,349,330

1890.....4,066,091 8,919 1,891,800

There were also shipped during the past year 5,808,150 gallons of wine over the lines of the Southern Pacific Railroad and about 750,000 gallons over the lines of the Atchafalco, Topeka and Santa Fe road.

What is now needed to place the wine business of California upon a proper footing is, first, the proper aging of the wine, which requires capital, and, secondly, the sale of the product under California labels. At present a large proportion of the choicest vintage of the State is bottled and sold under French labels as Chateau this or that, while the poor wine is placed on the market as California wine, thus giving the vintage of the State a bad name.

In this connection may be mentioned a recent rumor that the representative of an English syndicate is now in California for the purpose of examining all the largest vineyards of the State with a view to their purchase.

LEWIS

THE LEADING SHOE HOUSE

A Resume of Our Holiday Trade.

WE HAD a very satisfactory Holiday Trade. It was fully equal in volume of business to any month during the boom. True, we went to a great expense but the public appreciated our efforts and rallied to our support in fine style. Our great gifts of toys were appreciated by thousands. The little folks were gratified without expense to parents; to many it was the richest Christmas they ever had. Of course, in doing such an immense business, the stock necessarily became badly broken. Thousands of dollars' worth of advance orders had been placed, however, and the telegraph was called into requisition to hurry them through. Now we don't like the idea of carrying broken sizes in stock and in order to hurry them out of the house a cut in prices has been made.

HERE THEY GO:

Ladies' fine French Kid Shoes in Opera and Common Sense last, in Louis XIV heels and in all styles, worth $8 a pair, now..... $5.00

Ladies' Dongola Kid Shoes, worth $3.50, very fine, now selling at..... 2.50

Men's hand-sewed French Calf Shoes, worth $6, at..... 4.50

A beautiful line of hand-belt French Kid Shoes in broken sizes, the regular price of which is $5.00, but they are now selling at..... 3.50

Children's School Button Shoes, $1, $1.25, $1.50.

Over 650,000 copies have already gone into the homes of the rich, but the subscription price of $7.00 has placed it beyond the reach of people in moderate circumstances. If 650,000 people have been willing to pay $7.00 for Grant's Memoirs, there must be a couple of million people in the United States who want them, and will jump at the opportunity to buy at the low figure here offered.

We will send you General Grant's Memoirs, publishers' original edition, best paper, cloth, green and gold binding, hitherto sold by subscription for $7.00.

For 50 cents! for 50 cents! Absolutely only 50 cents!

and absolutely a proposition such as has never been made in the history of book publishing. Cheap editions and reprints have been frequently offered by periodicals as premiums to subscribers.

—But Never Before—

has an original subscription edition on best paper and in cloth binding (sold at retail at $7.00), been refused to go into—probably less than 100 copies of the binding alone—and presented to the readers of a magazine or paper upon receipt of 50 cents.

Such an offer will never be made again. No publisher could afford to make it unless he wished to present a magazine which he felt sure had only to be introduced to the young boy or girl as to the oldest grey-head.

gives in a year 1335 pages of reading by the ablest authors in the world, with over 1300 illustrations by clever artists, a magazine whose field is the world; and as the true test of merit is success, its growth from 15,000 to over 100,000 copies within the past three years, best attests its worth.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Considerable Business Disposed of in Short Order.

The Regular Reports of Officers and Committees Submitted.

The Buena Vista-street Bridge and the Electric Road.

The Usual Street Work Ordered—The City Printing Awarded—Zanjias and Sewers—Petitions and Communications.

The City Council met in regular session yesterday morning at the usual time and place, with Councilman Tufts in the chair, President Bonnell and the member from the Fourth Ward having failed to respond to the roll call.

After the usual preliminaries had been disposed of, the Council proceeded to dispose of the regular routine business in the following order:

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

The reports of the City Clerk and City Tax and License Collector, showing the issuance of 2169 licenses during the month of December last, from 2038 of which the sum of $14,634.50 had been collected, and 101 had been returned as uncollected, were referred to the City Auditor.

That of the City Tax and License Collector, showing the collection of eight delinquent licenses for November last, valued at $34, and the return of twenty-four uncollected, was also referred.

That of the Superintendent of Buildings showing the collection of $74 from building permits, issued during December last was also referred to the City Auditor.

Those of City Justice Austin, showing the collection of $67.25 in fees and fines during December last; Clerk Chicago, the Police Court, showing that $659.20 had been received during the past month in fees and fines, of which sum Police Judge Austin collected $389.20 and Police Judge Owens $270; and City Clerk Teed, showing the collection of $19.50 in petty cash from the sales of ordinances and redemption of tax sales, were all referred to the City Auditor.

The annual report of the Superintendent of Streets for the year ending November 30, last, a resume of which was published in THE TIMES yesterday morning, was referred to the special committee on annual reports.

THE LAND COMMITTEE PRESENTED THE FOLLOWING REPORT:

In the matter of the communication from K. H. Wade, general manager of the Southern California Railroad Company, stating that they are desirous of renewing their lease of the property in East Los Angeles for stockyard purposes, the committee recommended that a lease be entered into for a period of three years at an annual rental of $150, and that the City Attorney be instructed to prepare and present a lease in accordance herewith.

UPON MOTION OF COUNCILMAN SUMMERLAND THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED AS READ.

JUDGE SHAW'S WATER DECISION.

The report of the City Attorney on the decision of Judge Shaw in the suit brought by the Council to disfranchise the Citizens' Water Company, which was published in THE TIMES on Sunday morning, was read and referred to the Special Committee on Water Supply, on motion of Councilman Rees.

The matter was discussed at some length. Councilman Innes opening the ball by asking whether or not it would be necessary to take an appeal.

City Attorney McFarland replied that in his opinion it was unnecessary. He still maintained, as he had done in the outset, that the property could not be forfeited.

Councilman McGarry said he would like to know if the Citizens' Water Company did not have the right to draw ten inches of water from the river, and whether or not, if that was so, an appeal would have to be taken in order to forfeit that right.

The City Attorney replied that as the company's right to this water would cease at the expiration of the year's notice, given in May last, the forfeiture would only confiscate the plant of the company, and not of any property it held by mere license.

DEPUTIES FOR THE ASSESSOR.

Ordinances were presented by the City Attorney, and adopted, allowing four deputies in the City Assessor's office, and requiring all poles placed on the public streets to be painted.

A communication was received from the City Tax and License Collector, asking to be allowed three extra deputies until the tax sale list be made out and the necessary certificates written.

The request was granted, and the City Attorney directed to prepare the necessary ordinance therefor.

At this juncture President Bonnell arrived and Councilman Tufts withdrew from the chair in his favor.

PUBLIC WORKS.

The report of the Board of Public Works, as heretofore published in THE TIMES, was adopted as read, as was also a supplemental report recommending that cross-walks be laid as follows: On Solotello street across Main street, on Alameda across Ducommun, on Lazard across Vignes, on Turner across Vignes, on Hanning across Vignes, on Elgath across San Julian, Maple avenue and Duplex street, on Seventh across Maple avenue, on Grand avenue across Laguna, on Hill across Fourteenth, on Leath across Grand avenue.

Deeds from W. C. Cossar and wife, J. H. Jones and wife and Herman L. Welch for a 60-foot strip of land for the extension of Bridge street westerly into Aliso street, were presented by the board with the recommendation that the city accept the same and that they be placed on record.

A waiver of claim for damages on account of change of grade on Pleasant street, was also presented with the recommendation that the City Engineer present ordinance of intention to change the grade on that street. Both recommendations were adopted.

BUENA VISTA STREET BRIDGE AND ELECTRIC ROAD.

President Bonnell stated that he desired to correct the impression made by a morning paper in its remarks upon the Council for having granted a franchise to the electric railway company to lay its tracks on the Buena Vista-street bridge across the river. He was anxious that the public should know that no such franchise had been granted, and that the Consolidated Company intended to erect its own bridge alongside the present bridge.

Councilman Nickell added that the company had not even asked for such a franchise, and the indications were that it would not be granted were it to do so.

Councilman Tufts remarked that he was glad to see this enthusiasm oozing out relative to donating the city's bridges, and complimented the Council upon it.

Councilman McGarry said that there was another matter in this connection he would like to have attended to. It was reported that the electric railway company was cutting the grade of Buena Vista street down to fourteen inches below that already established.

As many people were of the opinion that the Board of Public Works was derelict in its duty in this respect, he was of the opinion the City Engineer should be required to see that the grade was not interfered with.

Councilman Innes thought the City Engineer should see that all tracks were laid on the proper grades, but Councilman Rees was inclined to the belief that it would be better to see whether or not some of the grade could be modified in some degree. This might be a similar case to that of Pearl street, where the grade as given by the Engineer was subsequently found to be a foot higher than the one in existence.

After some further debate, the City Engineer upon motion was directed to superintend the track-laying on Buena Vista street.

Upon motion of Councilman Alford the special specifications for the paving of Figueroa street were adopted, as was also the ordinance of intention to do the work.

ZANJIAS AND SEWERS.

The Zanja Committee's report recommending that the petition of Robert Hargrave for permission to use water from the ditch which supplied reservoir No. 4, be denied; that the petition of E. J. Post for leave to connect a two-inch pipe with the zanja for irrigation purposes be granted, provided he pay $2 per month for the water; and that the Evergreen Cemetery Association be required to pay $15 per month for water instead of $2 as at present, was adopted.

The report of the Sewer Committee, recommending that the petition of the California Sewer Pipe Company asking for an extension of time for sixty days on its contract for the central intercept sewer be granted, provided that it indemnify the city against any loss; that the report of the Finance Committee, as heretofore published in THE TIMES, was adopted as read.

THE CITY PRINTING.

The Supply Committee reported recommending that the bid of the Evening Express Company for the city's advertising for the current year, at 14 cents per inch for the first insertion and 9 cents per inch for each subsequent insertion, be accepted. Adopted.

MOTIONS.

Councilman Summerland moved that Wilhast street be graded and graveled under the supervision of the Street Superintendent, and to be done by the city prisoners. The matter was referred to the Board of Public Works.

Upon motion of Councilman Nickell the City Engineer was directed to make cheap plans and specifications for turning or roading up the San Fernando road from Walnut street bridge to the city limits.

Councilman Alford moved that the City Clerk be directed to advertise for bids for the construction of a flume 4x2 feet on ditch No. 2, from the Los Angeles Lighting Company's tunnel to the seventh street. Referred to the Zanja Committee.

Upon motion of Councilman Summerland the City Engineer was directed to furnish the Committee on Land with a map of all the land belonging to the city.

Councilman Alford moved that the City Engineer prepare and present proper maps for the widening of Washington street from Main to San Pedro streets, so as to make it eighty feet in width, and that the Board of Public Works be requested to map out a district for assessment. Referred to the Board of Public Works and City Engineer.

The same member also moved that the Street Superintendent be instructed to make a gravel gutter across Eighth street on the west side of Alameda street to the official grade of the street, and that the City Engineer give him proper stakes. Referred to Board of Public Works.

STREET WORK ORDERED.

In accordance with the report of the City Clerk the following ordinances, over which the Council had acquired jurisdiction, were adopted as read:

Ordinance ordering that Court street be graded and graveled from Figueroa street to Lakeshore avenue; that Burlington avenue be graded and graveled from First street to Bellevue avenue; that a sewer be constructed on Temple street between Union and Lakeshore avenues; that Fifth street be paved with bituminous lime rock from San Pedro to Main streets, and that Fickett street be graded and graveled from First street to Brooklyn avenue.

On motion of Councilman Summerland the City Engineer was directed to present an ordinance for the grading and graveled of Macy street from Lyon street to the covered bridge.

Upon motion of Councilman Innes the City Engineer was instructed to notify the Los Angeles Consolidated Electric Company to place its tracks on Buena Vista street on the established grade.

On motion of Councilman Summerland Council then adjourned. Messrs. Innes, Nickell, Rhodes and Rees voting negatively.

HE IS A MARRIED MAN.

Young Hill's Wife Puts in an Appearance.

A Dramatic Scene When the Two Met in the City Prison.

The Fellow Broke Down Completely and Admitted His Guilt.

The Story of the Wronged Woman—Hill Taken Back to San Bernardino by a Deputy Sheriff Last Evening.

The arrest of young Hill, Sunday afternoon, turns out to be a very sensational affair, and notwithstanding the young man's protestation of innocence it appears that he is in a pretty bad fix, even if he escapes the penitentiary.

Deputy Sheriff Brown of San Bernardino arrived in the city yesterday morning, accompanied by Hill's wife, and the two at once went to police headquarters, where the runaway husband was locked up.

Hill still denied that he was already married, and swore that he was about to marry Miss Wozencraft in good faith when a former lover of the young lady put up a job on him to get him out of the way.

"How about these letters to your wife in San Diego?" asked Deputy Sheriff Brown, producing several letters addressed to Mrs. Frank E. Hill at San Diego, in Hill's handwriting.

Hill stoutly denied that he ever saw the letters before, and was of the opinion that they must have been forged by some enemy.

At this stage of the proceedings Mrs. Hill, who had been concealed in hearing distance, was asked to come out and face her faithless husband.

Hill is full of nerve, to use a wild west expression, but the sudden appearance of his pretty wife completely upsets him, and he stood with mouth and eyes wide open until Mrs. Hill stepped up in front of him and asked:

"Who am I?" in the pathetic tone of injured female innocence.

"I am gone," came from Hill's pale lips, "you are my wife." But he recovered himself in a few minutes, and, as a steady state of mind, he stood with his thin lips, he reached out to take his wife's hand, but she ignored him and would have nothing more to say.

Hill is evidently a crank on the marriage proposition, and from all accounts he has good taste, for Mrs. Hill from San Diego is a very pretty woman and is almost a girl, while Mary Wozencraft is one of the belles of San Bernardino and is one of the prettiest girls in Southern California, and it is rumored that before he reached the Coast he had a beautiful wife in San Jose.

Only one wife has turned up so far, however, and as size did not give him time to marry Miss Wozencraft, her case for bigamy will fall to the ground unless she can produce another wife, and then she will have to fall back on the divorce court and give him a chance to marry Miss Wozencraft if that young woman has not changed her mind.

MRS. HILL'S STORY.

Mrs. Hill was seen at the police station yesterday afternoon by a TIMES reporter. She is a pretty young woman, very modest and refined in her demeanor, and evidently keenly feels the unfortunate position in which she is placed. She was not inclined to talk much about the affair for publication, saying she already had more notoriety than she desired, and did not wish to be the means of making her private affairs public. She stated, however, that she was well connected as Hill, and that she had been married to him in due form at Fairhaven, Wash., a year ago on the 25th of the present month.

From another source, however, Mrs. Hill's story was learned, from which it appears that young Hill is an unmitigated blackguard, and that the young woman has been deeply wronged. From what Mrs. Hill told parties in San Bernardino, she was married to Hill on the 25th of last January, at Fairhaven, Wash., at which time she was keeping house for her brother, who is her only relative on this coast. Shortly after their marriage they removed to Sacramento, and, about four months ago, they came to San Diego. At that time Hill had between $800 and $1000. Hill is a first-class druggist, and sought employment at San Diego but could find no opening. One day about three months ago a drummer told Hill that a drug clerk was wanted in San Bernardino, so he left his wife at San Diego, and went to San Bernardino, where he secured employment. He wrote to his wife every day for awhile, but when she asked to go to him he informed her that he had told his employer that he was a single man. He stated that he had to do this to get work, and he wanted to get better acquainted before he undressed him. Mrs. Hill believed this flimsy excuse, and things went on this way for some time, and as she is a dressmaker she got employment and went to work and has been supporting herself ever since her husband left. On the 31st of last month Hill put in an appearance at San Diego without any warning whatever and told his wife that he was in trouble and that if any one asked her if they were married she must deny it. He said he had to go East, but that he would write at once and tell her where to come.

Mrs. Hill still had faith in her husband, and would have known nothing about his San Bernardino affair but for an accident. After he left San Diego she was looking through some of his baggage which he left with her, and found a wedding card announcing the marriage of her husband to Miss Mary Wozencraft. She was thunderstruck, and left for San Bernardino by the next train. When she reached that city and inquired for Hill, she was told that he had left the city. She at once called on Miss Wozencraft, when she explained matters to the young lady and her family, and yesterday morning came to the city with Deputy Sheriff Brown, who was to take Hill back to San Bernardino.

Just what Mrs. Hill's future course will be, is not known. Hill, it is claimed, offered her his watch if she would not appear against him, but the offer was declined. Hill, however, had $108 in coin when arrested, and it is said that Mrs. Hill told him if he would give her the money, or enough to secure a divorce, he might go his way, so far as she is concerned, but no agreement was reached.

TAKEN BACK TO SAN BERNARDINO.

Hill was taken to San Bernardino by Deputy Sheriff Brown last night and Mrs. Hill accompanied them. The three did not occupy the same seats, but the lady did not get far away from her husband, and the chances are that she will stick to him until he consents to give her money enough to get a divorce, or they make up.

Nothing developed in this city as to the embezzlement charge against Hill. He denied that he had taken anything that was not his own, and stated he was innocent of anything of the kind, but it may be that the San Bernardino authorities have sufficient to hold the young man, even if his tangled matrimonial affairs are straightened out.

THE EAST SIDE.

The Week of Prayer Observed at Various Churches—New Notes.

The week of prayer is being observed at several of the churches, services being held at the Asbury Methodist Episcopal every morning, afternoon and evening until Wednesday. Beginning tonight there will be services at the Congregational Church for three evenings, the Presbyterians to join in the Wednesday night service. Tomorrow afternoon Dr. Jenkins will hold an invalids' prayer service for the benefit of those who are unable or indisposed to attend the night meetings.

The Qui Vive Club will hold a business meeting this evening at Campbell's Hall to discuss the late ball, and perhaps take steps toward the giving of another entertainment.

Gas has been put in on South Daly street and a number of residences are being supplied with pipes and connections.

Dr. Newton, who for several days last week was reported in a dying condition, is now said to be much better, and it is hoped that he is out of danger.

Several times of late minor events have occurred and several days afterward when it was too late the interested parties have brought around notices which they wished published. Such items in order to secure mention should be handed in or left at Richters, No. 820 Downey avenue, not later than 4:30 of the day they are to occur, in order that they may be published the succeeding morning.

The Congregational Endeavor Society held its first business meeting of the year last evening. The principal work accomplished was the receiving of reports from old members, appointing new ones and auditing a number of small bills. The new officers are: President, W. Homer Kennedy; vice-president, Miss Belle Russ; recording secretary, Miss Emma A. Thornton; treasurer, Miss Essie Benedict.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Resignation of John T. Gaffey and Election of George D. Roberts.

The Board of Education met in regular session last night with President Boal in the chair and Secretary Baker present.

The resignation of Miss M. Phillipson was received and accepted.

The resignation of John T. Gaffey, as a member of the board, was accepted with regrets.

George D. Roberts was recommended as the person to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Gaffey's resignation, and Mr. Marsh moved that he be elected, which motion prevailed. Dr. Davis voting no, as he was anxious to have the matter postponed, but he changed his vote before the election was made known.

The resignation of Mrs. Mary L. Chapman, a teacher in the high school, was read and accepted.

The Superintendent's report showed that during the month of December there were 3987 boys and 4039 girls in daily attendance, making a total of 7126; new pupils, boys 111, girls 100. Miss Frances E. Lewis was elected a teacher of the high school, and Miss Della F. Ledbetter, Alice Phillips and Nellie C. Retley were elected substitutes.

Mr. Marsh moved that the Turnverein teacher continue his work as instructor in the Spring Street school during the rest of the school year at the same salary. Carried.

Bills amounting to $1389.89 were audited and ordered paid.

After some further discussion the board adjourned.

Delighted with California.

Rev. E. A. Telfer of London, England, who is making a tour of the world, has been spending some time in Los Angeles. Dr. Telfer is a Methodist preacher and a speaker of great power, having frequently occupied the lecture platform. He is delighted with what he has seen in Southern California, and yesterday called at the Chamber of Commerce to secure literature pertaining to the resources of this part of the State, as he contemplates delivering a course of lectures on Southern California on his return to England. Secretary Willard and Superintendent Wiggins loaded him up with literature, photographs, samples of products, etc., which will give him ample food for thought.

After Dr. Telfer's return from a previous visit to America he delivered a number of lectures on Canada before audiences aggregating 75,000 people, and he expects to reach about that number with his lectures on Southern California, which will be designed specially for the information of young Englishmen of promise and capital who wish to come to America to settle, and will therefore be the means of turning their eyes toward this part of the country. Dr. Telfer is enthusiastic over what he terms the most magnificent country he has ever visited.

The Supervisors.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday, Frank H. Howard, Esq., was reappointed as a director of the County Law Library for the current year.

W. V. Clark was appointed to the office of constable in and for Compton township.

Pursuant to an order of the Superior Court the board proceeded to list eighty grand jurors and 800 trial jurors for the current year.

Upon motion of Supervisor Davis the sum of $150 was ordered transferred from the Florence to the Green Meadow road district fund.

The rest of the session was devoted to the task of auditing demands.

A Dangerous Lunatic.

A crazy man, who gave the name of Sam Ross, was captured by the police yesterday and taken to the County Jail. Ross put up at a lodging-house on the corner of Third and Main streets night before last, and yesterday morning he was found on top of the Third street engine house making a jump. The fellow was in the act of jumping the sidewalk a distance of sixty feet when the officers slipped up behind him and placed him under arrest.

PRO BONO PUBLICO

A gold dollar is worth 100 Cents

North, South, East or West.

We have never been able to buy one for less. This fact should be considered by the would-be owner of an orange grove. A good thing costs money, and is always the cheapest in the end. We are in receipt of dozens of letters inquiring why we are asking from $100 to $200 per acre for Alessandria land, while there are thousands of acres, advertised in full length columns of as many newspapers at less than half the price. Our reply is:

Ours are Gold Dollars.

That never sell below par.

No prudent man will invest his money in any of these wildcat schemes, promising great returns for a small outlay; they are very enticing to the weary toiler on the stony farms of the East, looks well on paper, but never materialize; you put your money in but never get it back.

If you are coming to Southern California for health, profit, or both, you want to invest your money where there is not the least possible chance of failure. That place is
